OUR SUCCESSES

Insurance

This leading insurance company was looking for a way to automate its underwriting process. Manual validations of new proposals and policy applications made the underwriting process highly tedious and error-prone. R Systems' AI experts deployed digital workforce to automate the process of scrutinizing new proposals. It has reduced their operational costs and helped them to cut back their processing time by more than 50%.

Results:

60%

increase in business ROI

100%
